EARLY HISTORY OF THE DEKKAN.

BY RAMKRISHNA GOPAL BHANDARKAR, M. A., Hony. M. R. A. S.

Price—Re. 1-8.

"Professor Bhandarkar deserves the special thanks of Government for the great labour and learning he has spent on this very elaborate and valuable early history of the Deccan."—Letter of Mr. J. M. Campbell, Compiler of the Bombay Gazetteer, to Government.

"I am greatly interested by your History. The fulness and the different subjects it takes up give it an interest which the general reader cannot feel in the simple chronicle of kings. * * It is the most generally interesting of the learned historical contributions."—Mr. Campbell's letters to the author.

"I have read it carefully and found it to be just what such a work should be. Your remarks on the Gupta Era will, I trust, set at rest a long disputed and puzzling problem in Indian chronology."—Dr. Rajendralal Mittra.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 4.

RUPEE PAPER in London is quoted ¼ higher in Fours and 1-16 in Fours-and-a-half, but with these exceptions stocks are unaltered, Consols still standing at 100⅞ and French Rentes at 108½.

In the Produce markets an advance of 5s. per ton in Cocoanut-oil constitutes the only change, Seeds, Wheat, Coffee, &c., being all as previously quoted.

COTTON in Liverpool yesterday closed steady with sales amounting to 10,000 bales, including 1,000 Surats. Spot quotations are unaltered and Surats are said to be freely offered, but Americans to arrive are partially 1-64d. lower in near and 1-64d. higher in distant positions. In New York ready Mid-Uplands are unaltered at 10⅝ cents, but futures have recovered 7 points of the previous day's decline, December being now 10-57 cents. per lb. The receipts at the ports are :—

	1884	1883	1882
Wednesday's Receipts	2,000	6,000	5,600
Total since 1st Sept	2,000	17,000	15,600

Locally the market has undergone no change to-day. The recovery in futures necessarily imparts a firmer tone and sellers are more difficult to deal with, but the inquiry for old cotton is not more active, and we have not heard of any fresh business.

SEEDS and WHEAT remain in the same position with very small arrivals.

FREIGHTS show a somewhat steadier tone. The liners now hold for 15s. wheat and 17s. 6d. measurement for Liverpool and London, and 20s. is the lowest ready quotation for the Continental ports. Forward there are takers of room at 22s. 6d. to 23s. 9d., but owners decline to do business on these terms, and there are several steamers now in harbour which are being kept off the market altogether preferring to lie idle to accepting current figures.

IMPORTS.—Piece-goods are steady, but not active, clearances from the bazaar being rather under than over an average. Coals are rapidly rising price, no outward tonnage being obtainable at home in view of the depressed state of homeward freights. Cardiff is now worth Rs. 16, West Hartley Rs. 15½ to arrive alongside, an advance of fully Re. 1 per ton in ten days, with every appearance of a further rise.

EXCHANGE.—No allotments resulted from the usual weekly biddings for Council drafts in London yesterday, which probably means that Government have declined to sell under 1s. 7½d. per rupee. On the strength of this a slightly steadier tone has been observable in the market here to-day, and the banks have put up their buying rates 1-32d. At all events they name that advance, but there is scarcely sufficient paper offering to thoroughly test the market, and probably a fair line of approved bills could be placed on yesterday's terms. Meanwhile we quote ready :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 7-16d.	per rupee.
Do. Telegraphic	1s. 7 13-32d.	"
Do. Three months' sight	1s. 7 9-16d.	"
Credits do.	do. 1s. 7 21-32d.	"
France do.	do. ..... 2·07 to ½	"

Bar silver in London is said to be firmer at 50⅝d. per oz., but meanwhile shipments to this side continue on a fair scale, £120,000 in silver and £20,000 in gold for this port being advised in the telegrams to hand this morning.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has steadied up again somewhat. Buyers came out first thing at Rs. 99 3-16 for Fours and later on Rs. 99¼ was done. Fours-and-a-half are steady at Rs. 103½.

SHARES.—Mill shares are slightly steadier again with an occasional recovery of Rs. 5 per share, but the general tone of the market remains very dull, with no business of any importance doing. Bombay-Burmah Trading Co. shares are again Rs. 25 lower at Rs. 4,750.

DEFECTIVE OR FAILING SIGHT.

THE sense of sight is so valuable that the importance of perfect and carefully adjusted spectacles can scarcely be overrated ; although the wearing of single eye-glasses should be strictly avoided, we have the highest medical authority, confirmed by daily experience, that imperfect glasses, together with the haphazard plan of selection generally employed, are frequent causes of irremediable injury to the sight ; and as no present economy can compensate for such a loss, it behoves all to be cautious how they are tempted to use the common pebble or glass spectacles now so generally sold.

For the guidance of those who are using pebble spectacles, it may be stated that when the pebbles are cut against the grain, and not polished on the principle which has been universally declared the most appropriate based on scientific research, they are injurious to the sight.

Undoubtedly the unnecessary wearing of spectacles, undoubtedly is, the common notion that their use should be postponed to the utmost is proved beyond dispute to be a grave mistake.

Being in possession of all the optical instruments taken over by us from Dr. A. Menist, we are not only in a position to suit the eye sight to perfection, but to supply different accommodations for each eye which so frequently are needed.

The Bombay Gazette

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1884.

IT has been pretty plainly intimated that the fuss which Prince Bismarck has been pleased to make about Angra Pequena covered really an intention to secure for Germany a footing in the Congo region which is now at last, for the first time in the history of the world, about to be opened up to the civilized races of mankind. As everybody knows, the treaty by which England and Portugal had agreed to regulate between them the future of the districts around the mouth of the great river, came to nothing through the somewhat officious declaration of the German Chancellor that he did not approve of it, and would not assent to the disposal of the localities in question contemplated by the treaty. The object in view being simply, or at all events mainly, the checkmating of French pretensions in that quarter which M. de Brazza was pushing to an extreme, no one anticipated that the German Government would disapprove of it. But as a matter of fact that Government did intervene, and with a success which would certainly have been denied to M. Ferry, insisted on the treaty being allowed to drop. Already, then, the Great Powers have entered into open rivalry with regard to the control of the destinies of the vast basin of the Congo. An article in the Edinburgh Review brings together a number of very suggestive facts which indicate the magnitude of the interests at stake in that quarter of the world. The reviewer dates the modern epoch of exploration in Central Africa from the discovery by Burton and Speke in 1858 of the great equatorial lakes of Tanganyika and Victoria Nyanza. Thenceforward, he says, "it was no longer doubtful that a populous and fertile region, almost doubling the extent of Europe, awaited and would repay disclosure ; and an unbroken succession of heroic travellers and devoted missionaries have not ceased to respond to the joint appeal of humanity, scientific curiosity, and commercial enterprise." That the latter motive has been the most powerful of all will readily be acknowledged. With perseverance and energy, the formidable natural barriers that surrounded the terra incognita of all African explorers' dreams have been surmounted. The consequent gain to Europe has been of a two-fold character. Not only has a new country teeming with natural resources invaluable to commerce been opened up for it, but in the interior of Africa it has found a fresh market "to relieve the growing pressure of overproduction, and set the stagnant waters of trade flowing." And but half a century ago it was thought that the heart of Africa was but a barren waste completely given up to desolation and the scorching heat of the equatorial sun. On all sides it was hemmed in by climatic dangers and physical difficulties which were not considered worth the trouble of surmounting. The foaming waters of four mighty and unnavigable rivers, the Nile, the Niger, the Zambezi, and the Congo, formed its boundaries. The country which they traversed was so rugged and wild that even their courses were not explored, beyond certain narrow limits. The secret of their origin and rise was supposed to be shrouded in a mystery so profound as to be almost impenetrable. But the very difficulty which enveloped the discovery began to cast a spell on adventurous men, and induced them to leave aside conjectures and undertake the achievement. If they did not attain the fullest success in the direction aimed at, their explorations resulted in the disclosure, for the first time to civilized man, of a vast extent of new country rich in natural resources. The energies of men were thenceforth directed to the finding out of an easy way of approaching and opening out the newly discovered regions.

In 1876, under the auspices of the Belgian Government, an International African Association was formed, which had for its declared objects the abolition of the slave trade, the rescue from barbarism of a large section of the human race, and the enlargement of geographical and scientific knowledge. It was hoped that all national rivalry would be laid aside, and an organised effort be made on the part of all interested in the welfare of Africa to aid in the good work. Advantage was taken of the old slave trade routes from Zanzibar to the interior, and the Association resolved to advance gradually westwards along them. "A chain of posts, forming so many oases of culture in the wilderness of barbarism, was thus gradually to be drawn across the whole of the as yet trackless equatorial region, and beneficent enterprise of every kind to be assured, at convenient intervals, a refuge, a starting point, and a link of communication with the extra-African world." But these plans afterwards underwent a complete change, owing to an event that took place soon after the formation of the Association. Mr. Stanley had succeeded in crossing the African continent by means of the great waterway of the Congo. As far back as 1871 Dr. Livingstone came across a mighty river at Nyangwa, some 200 miles west of lake Tanganyika. This river, the Lualaba, he discovered took its rise in some mountains a few miles south-east of Tanganyika, and from the first assumed the character of a majestic stream, bearing past Nyangwa, in the lowest ebb of the dry season, an estimated volume of 124,000 cubic feet of water per second. Livingstone lost his life in the attempt to identify this river with the upper course of the Nile. His failure inspired the more fortunate Stanley with the idea that the Lualaba, if not the Nile, must be the Congo, and his memorable voyage in 1877 was the practical demonstration of this view. The Belgian Association immediately resolved to transfer its base of operations from the eastern to the western shore, and enter the country by ascending the river. For this purpose it very wisely secured the services of Stanley, with the result that it has succeeded in distancing all competitors. According to the latest accounts, it has succeeded in establishing over thirty stations ; "close upon two thousand persons are in the employment of its agents ; the territory ceded to it is measured by degrees of latitude ; a flotilla of thirteen vessels keeps up communications along the 'moving highway' of the great river." The extent of the advantage thus obtained will only be fully seen when the following facts about the Congo are known. Though the length of its course is not so great as that of many other rivers, it stands second only to the Amazon for the unvarying copiousness of its waters, the volume of water borne by it being, according to the lowest estimate, 2,000,000 cubic feet per second, being nearly six times as much as that of the Ganges. For the first 350 miles of its course the navigation of the river presents many difficulties, which at certain points amount to impracticability, owing to the obstacles imposed by numerous cataracts ; nor are the shores of the river more practicable for travel than its surface. But when Stanley Pool is reached a new region opens. "From hence upwards the great river can be navigated for close upon a thousand miles, with steamers equal to the largest that ply upon the Mississippi ; from hence, too, its tributaries, in comparison with many of which the Thames at London Bridge, or the Elbe at Magd

THE DELIMITATION COMMISSION.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, SEPT. 4.

It has been found necessary to increase the escort of the Indian party for the Delimitation Commission to five hundred men. An additional three hundred infantry will be drawn from the 20th Punjab Native Infantry, stationed at Jullunder.

There seems to be an impression in military circles here that the escort, even when augmented, is insufficient.

The Indian party, it is thought, will make their way securely to Sarrakhs. There does not appear to be an equal certainty of their coming securely back.

THE Health Officer's report for the week ending the 2nd instant shows that there has again been a slight increase in the mortality from cholera, the number of deaths registered during the week being 23 against 18 last week and 15 in the preceding week. There is no ground, however, for uneasiness. Cholera is always more or less prevalent in Bombay at this time of the year. In the corresponding week of last year there were no fewer than 64 deaths, while the mean of the corresponding weeks in the preceding five years was 20. Last week's bill of mortality is made up as follows:—Jain, 1; Brahmin, 1; Hindoos of other castes, 8; Hindoo outcastes, 5; Parsee, 1; and native Christians, 7. In the Esplanade section of the town there occurred 1 death; Mandvi, 1; Dongri, 1; Dhobi Talao, 3; Bhatteshwar, 2; Khumbarwara, 1; Khetwady, 2; Girgaum, 2; Tardeo, 1; Byculla, 2; Sion, 1; and Mahim, 1. Funneswady is apparently free from the disease.

A SURVEY settlement has been introduced into the Inam villages of Ashte and Dawansur, belonging to all the Peti talukas of the Kolaba collectorate, and also into the leasehold villages of Kirote and Dewnan belonging to the Salsette taluka of the Thana collectorate. In the case of the Inam villages the assessments imposed will remain in force for a period of four years, commencing with the current year of 1883-84, and in the case of the leasehold villages for a period of seven and five years respectively.

YESTERDAY'S Bombay Government Gazette contains the orders made by His Excellency the Governor in Council with regard to the establishment of Local Boards in the district of Surat. A board is to be established for each of the following talukas:—Chorasi, Jalalpore, Bardoli, Olpad, Chikhli, Bulsar, Pardi, and Mandvi. The president of each board, excepting that of Mandvi, will be a nominee of the Government, and the board will consist of nominated and elective members in equal numbers. A considerable portion of the Mandvi taluka, consisting of 135 villages, is inhabited by the Kaliparaj people, who are not, in the opinion of the Governor in Council, sufficiently advanced in social development for the introduction of the franchise in the manner and to the extent contemplated in sections 5 and 6 of the Local Boards Act. It is therefore directed that the provisions of those sections, and the subsequent provisions of the Act which refer to those sections, shall not apply to the Taluka Local Board of Mandvi, and that in lieu thereof the board shall consist of seven members, three of whom will be elective and four nominated members.

FROM the Bombay season reports for the week ending the 2nd inst., it appears that there has been rain throughout the Presidency. Agricultural prospects have much improved, but more rain is still wanted in parts of Poona, Nasik, Sholapore, and Dharwar. The kharif crops have been injured in parts of the Upper Sind Frontier by excessive rain and stormy weather. Cholera was prevalent in parts of ten districts, and fever, cattle-disease, and small-pox in a few places.

MR. JUSTICE BIRDWOOD gave judgment at the High Court yesterday in the case of Merwanjee Burjorjee Mowjee vs. Rustomjee Nanabhoy Mehta and others, in which the plaintiff, among other things, claimed to recover the ornaments and clothes presented to his wife, now deceased, at the time of her marriage. His lordship held that the custom under which the plaintiff claimed had been judicially recognised; and the plaintiff was declared entitled to recover the ornaments in question. That custom, according to the evidence given in the case by Dustoor Jamaspjee Menocherjee, Mr. Nowrojee Furdoonjee, and Mr. Sorabjee S. Bengalee, was that the presents made at a marriage belonged to the husband and wife jointly during their lives, and after the death of either of them to the survivor, and that the existence of children made no difference in the custom.

A CORRESPONDENT writes to us from Diu:—A rainstorm on the 13th of August caused much damage to buildings and other property here. The roads and streets were flooded, and remained impassable for many hours. The Chapel of N. S. de Guia completely gave way, necessitating the removal of the furniture and other valuable articles to the Chapel of N. S. de Remedios. The sacred images were processionally conveyed to the latter chapel.

THE new postal order at Goa, prohibiting the defacement of the postage stamp, is working an amount of mischief which hardly entered into the calculations of those responsible for the innovation. The disadvantages have been, indeed, manifold. It has given an opportunity for dishonest practices in the Postal Department, by the removal of stamps, without the slightest fear of detection. Equal carelessness is shown by the Post Office in not defacing the stamp with the ordinary postal mark. There have been numerous complaints, and the Goa Post Office would not be acting unadvisedly if it were to rescind the order.

COLONEL BRADFORD, C.S.I., Agent to the Governor-General, Rajputana, is expected in Simla directly. Mr. J. A. Crawford, Political Assistant in the Agency, follows about the 15th.

PROFESSOR KIPLING, of the Lahore School of Art, has been summoned to Simla by the Revenue Department, to confer on matters connected with the Indian and Colonial Exhibition of 1886.

WHEN Mr. A. Mackenzie, Secretary in the Home Department, takes leave in November, Mr. D. Fitzpatrick will probably officiate for him, Mr. R. J. Crosthwaite, Judicial Commissioner of the Central Provinces, acting as Legislative Secretary.

CAPTAIN G. O'B. CAREW, Superintendent of the Kidderpore Dockyard, has gone away on leave for three months. Captain Hewitt, from Bombay officiates for him.

THE Umballa correspondent of the Pioneer telegraphs that fresh orders have reached there regarding the escort for the Afghan Boundary Commission. An extra 120 men have been called for, and in consequence of this the head-quarters of the 11th Bengal Lancers under Colonel Prinsep, with Lieutenant Beatson and Lieutenant Wright, were to leave at once. Lieutenant Wright was to start next day at 5 p.m. with 60 men; and the head-quarters were to leave on Wednesday at a similar hour. Major Scott remains at the depôt. 200 of the 20th Punjab Native Infantry now at Jullunder also start immediately. Colonel Prinsep will now assume command of the whole escort.

OUR Calcutta correspondent, telegraphing on Monday, gave information of an accident to the screw steamer Sir William Peel. It appears that the steamer, which was on the way to Cachar with the 4th N. I. on board, had got on a sandbank in the Watganga river, at a place called Mowzeepur, some twelve hours' steam from Goalundo. The commander of the steamer telegraphed for another vessel to be at once sent to his assistance in getting his steamer off and in carrying the troops on board to their destination, and that in the meantime he had lightened his vessel. A Calcutta paper says that the two vessels at present in the dockyard are the Tigris and the Jaboona [illegible] heavy [illegible] draught of water to permit her to be sent off, while the Jaboona is a sister vessel to the Sir William Peel; but both these vessels have neither officers, engineers, nor crew, and are therefore of no assistance in an emergency. If engineers are taken from the dockyard and placed on board the Jaboona, the work at the dockyard must stop; and the only alternative is to orient on Bombay for these men, a course which will entail a delay of over six hours. Captain Fenn has left Calcutta for the scene of the occurrence. The same paper adds that on Monday a report was prevalent in Calcutta that the Indian Government steamer Tennasserim, which was sent a short time ago to Berbera, has gone ashore somewhere near that place.

MR. JOHN WALLACE, late of the Madras Civil Service, left Madras on August 26 for London, with the intention, the Hindu says, "of commencing his criminal prosecution against the Madras Government in the Court of Queen's Bench, and of instituting a civil suit for damages for wrongful dismissal and breach of covenant against the Secretary of State. We hear, however, that negotiations have been going on with respect to the latter, which may result in a compromise, should Mr. Wallace be willing to accept a pension proportionate to the length of his services, namely, the sum of £850 per annum. Mr. Wallace was entered at the Inner Temple some years ago, and expects to be called to the Bar in eighteen months' time, when he will return to practise in Madras."

ONE of the local papers reports an outbreak of cholera among the troops stationed in Madras. Four cases, it is stated, have occurred in the 22nd Regiment M. N. I., and the regiment is to move forthwith into cholera camp at Red Hills. Three cases are reported in the 26th N. I., and it is expected that they will also be moved directly, while one case has occurred among the South Wales Borderers. The Deputy Assistant Quarter-Master General, Major S. E. Atkinson, has proceeded to the Red Hills in order to select a site for the cholera camp. The whole regiment will leave Madras under Major Bredth, who has assumed command consequent on Colonel H. T. Harris, the commandant, and Major Tecky having been placed on the sick list. The families will be left behind. Arrangements are being rapidly made for the conveyance of camp equipage, hospital requirements, &c., the Ordnance Department having been requested to supply emergently five unserviceable tents for the shelter of cholera patients. The 26th N. I., at Washermanpett, has been ordered to hold itself in readiness to go into camp at a moment's notice. The officer commanding 2nd Battalion South Wales Borderers, has been directed to pitch at once on the South Glacis of Fort St. George a preparatory camp of five tents. The troops have now further been restricted from entering Triplicane on account of the prevalence of cholera in that suburb.

A RANGOON telegram states that a serious collision has occurred between the Chinese and Burmese at Mandalay and Bhamo. The Burmese fired into a Chinese temple, killing many, whereupon the Chinese charged the troops, but had eventually to withdraw, threatening revenge.

Truth has the following:—"How often people use words in writing and in conversation of which they do not know the real meaning! A peculiar instance of this occurred in a recent letter in the Standard from its correspondent in Rome. He speaks of 'humanitarian sympathy.' I draw attention to this as a friend of mine having said that the word 'humanitarian' was wrongly used in the letter, several highly-educated people present insisted that it was perfectly correct. When, however, they referred to a dictionary, they were all somewhat surprised to find that the only meaning given for 'humanitarian' was 'one who denies the divinity of Christ, asserting that he was a mere man.' I wonder how many of my readers knew up to now the meaning of the word?"

THE oldest inhabitant in the zoological collection in the Regent's Park has just died. This interesting individual was a specimen of the black parrot from Madagascar (Caracopsis vasa). It was presented to the society by the late Mr. Charles Telfair (a corresponding member) so far back as July, 1830, just two years after the gardens were opened. This bird has, therefore, lived for fifty-four years in the gardens. How old the parrot was when it arrived is not known, beyond the fact that it was represented as an "adult bird." Upwards of half a century may appear a good old age for a bird to attain, but a very much more extended period of longevity is claimed for parrots. The ancient black Vassa parrot seemed until very recently to have carried his half-century of years lightly enough, nevertheless his keeper remarked that he was a little dull of late, although he fed well. One morning, however, the parrot was found dead in his cage, having previously shown no symptoms of ill-health. In speaking of the "oldest inhabitant of the Zoological Gardens," allusion is specially made to the natural history specimens. It may be interesting to know that the head of the valuable staff of keepers under the superintendence of Mr. Bartlett has been an inhabitant of the Zoological Gardens, so to speak, for even a longer period than the venerable black parrot of Madagascar. Misselbrooke has been at his post since the gardens were opened in 1828. It is an honour to any man to have faithfully served either a master or an association for half a century, and Misselbrooke, head keeper of the Zoological Gardens, has been at his post for a period of upwards of fifty-six years.

BIRTHS AND DEATH IN BOMBAY.—The total number of deaths registered during the week endeon Tuesday, 2nd instant, was 311 being 13 more than in the previous week, 67 less than the week ending 4th September 1883, and 48 more than the mean of the corresponding period in the preceding five years. During the week 278 births were reported in the different districts of the city. The rate of mortality per 1,000 of population per annum was 30·03, calculated on the increase of population since 1881. There were 122 deaths from remittent fever, 31 more than the last week and 11 more than in the same period last year. The deaths from diseases of the respiratory system, diarrhœa, and dysentery were last week 65, 30, and 12 respectively, as compared with 79, 37, and 10 in the same time last year. 23 deaths from cholera were registered last week as compared with 18 in in the week previous.

A DRUNKEN FREAK.—A young Mahomedan, named Gunny Abdul Rahiman, was placed yesterday in the dock before Mr. Cooper, on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. It appears that the prisoner went at night to a dancing-girl's house in Bhendy-bazaar, and after hearing the music for about an hour gave a rupee to the woman. An altercation then somehow took place, and the prisoner attacked one of the fiddlers and removed three rupees which the man had secreted in his violin. He gradually grew more violent, threatened to assault the woman when she tried to interfere, and broke with a stick one of the lamps that served to light the hall. The fragments of the lamp were produced in court. The fiddler, who gave his evidence in a state of great nervous excitement, said that the prisoner had threatened to murder him, and begged that some steps might be taken to protect him from the man's violence. The woman also joined this witness in the prayer for personal protection. The prisoner, while admitting the truth of the complaint with which he was charged, denied having committed any violence. He also volunteered the information that it was the way with these people to keep broken lamps, and whenever any of their visitors in a fit of drunkenness was disposed to be disorderly, the fragments were produced to substantiate the charge of violence. The magistrate was of opinion that the lamp appeared to be fresh broken, and fined the prisoner Rs. 4, half of which sum was ordered to be given as compensation to the prosecutor.

SYSTEMATIC THEFTS FROM A CHEMIST'S.

RECENTLY the manager of Messrs. Cooper, Madon, and Co. discovered that a system of petty thefts was being carried on in the shop in Meadow-street. Several articles were missed, but no trace of the thief could be found. He therefore called in the assistance of the detective police, and on the advice of Khan Bahadoor Meer Abdool Ali, the head of the force, a detective in plain clothes was employed to do duty in the shop at night as a hamal. The detective soon noticed something suspicious in the conduct of a man named D. M. Pereira, a compounder in the dispensary. Whenever this man was on night duty he was visited by another compounder, named Mathews Fernandes, who is employed in a dispensary belonging to Dr. Rozario situated in Hornby-road; and then it invariably happened that the pseudo hamal was asked to go out and fetch some milk, or bread, or some other thing. On the hamal's return, he would find that Fernandes had left the shop. This circumstance was communicated by the hamal to the manager of the firm, who directed the night compounders never to send the hamal out of the shop on any account. In the meantime the hamal gradually wormed himself into the confidence of Pereira, and notwithstanding the managerial order, expressed his readiness to go out on errands as before; but now adopted the precaution of privately placing several other detectives, disguised as coolies, about the entrance of the shop. The next time Fernandes came to see his friend the hamal detected a package being given by Pereira, and soon after Fernandes was seen to leave with his pockets loaded with spoil. He was immediately pounced upon by the detectives waiting outside, and subsequently other property belonging to Messrs. Cooper, Madon, and Co. was found in the houses of Pereira and Fernandes.

Yesterday the two men were charged before Mr. F. Cooper. Pereira with the theft of medicines, worth Rs. 50, and possessions, of the value of Rs. 50, the property of Messrs. Cooper, Madon, and Co.; and the other with abetment of the offence, and receiving.

Mr. Sharpe, Barrister-at-law, of the High Court, appeared for the defence, and Khan Bahadoor Meer Abdool Ali conducted the case for the prosecution. Mr. Furdoonjee Shapoorjee, the head dispensing department of Messrs. Cooper, Madon, and Co., was examined, and identified the property before the court. The case was adjourned for further hearing to the 9th instant.

DEFALCATIONS BY A HINDOO CLERK.

MR. RUDGE CLARKE, a clerk in the employment of Messrs. Pearse and Company, was placed again before Mr. Cooper yesterday on a charge of criminal breach of trust in respect of three sums, aggregating Rs. 599, the property of his masters.

Mr. Macfarlane, of Messrs. Macfarlane and Edgelow, appeared for the prosecution; and Mr. Balkrishna, of Messrs. Balkrishna and Bhugwandas, for the accused.

The magistrate having framed the charge, asked if the accused had anything to say in his defence.

The prisoner pleaded guilty, and prayed for mercy.

Mr. Balkrishna urged in mitigation of any sentence that might be passed upon the accused that the man had been in jail from the 15th August till that day, that he bitterly repented of the temptation to which in an evil hour he had succumbed, and that he had a large family to support.

His worship, in passing sentence, said that the offence was a very serious one. It appeared that for several months the prisoner had been falsifying his masters' books and defrauding them of moneys. For these reasons the court could not pass a less sentence than that of two years' rigorous imprisonment in the House of Correction.

A BREACH OF THE RAILWAY ACT.

CADARBHOY DAWOODBHOY, a Borah, was charged under sections 29 and 30 of the Indian Railway Act with wilfully trying to pass off a parcel of "dangerous goods," to wit nitric acid, for a basket of fruit. Mr. Shamrao Rele, pleader, appeared for the defence.

It appears from the information laid against the accused that on the 18th June he took the basket to Boree-bunder station for transmission to Burhanpore, telling the parcel clerk that it contained fruit. A bill was accordingly made out, and the basket was removed to the brake. Here, on finding that smoke was issuing from the packet, it was opened, when its contents were revealed to the railway authorities. The accused had given his name as Currimbhoy Shumshoodeen to the parcel clerk, and the defence set up was that the accused, on whom the summons in this case was served in Burhanpore, was not the sender of the packet.

Mr. Cooper, dwelling on the serious nature of the case, observed that but for a happy accident leading to the discovery of the dangerous article, it might have caused damage to property, and even loss of life. There was no doubt on the evidence as to the identity of the accused. His worship fined the prisoner Rs. 70.

PRINCE'S DOCK.—The s. s. Highfield left the dock on Wednesday; and the s. s. St. Albans and Peshawur entered, and the s. s. Clare left, yesterday.

the Woosung Forts. The Feyuen, Chinese corvette started at two o'clock for Chefoo, having on board large quantities of breach-loading guns and ammunition.

Of late the stores on the Yangkingpang creek on the French side have been driving a most thriving business in the sale of daggers and pistols. The pistols have been bought mostly by Cantonese and Tientsin rowdies, while the more cowardly Shanghai men invest almost entirely in daggers. We are inclined to think that there is a certain degree of prudence displayed by the Shanghai rowdies in this, as it would be safer to stand before the Yang-kingpeng pistols when fired than behind them. Some of the pistols date from the Spanish Armada.

A number of foreign educated Chinese have recently received promotion in the Chinese navy. Mr. Lam Kwokcheong, captain of the Canton gunboat An-lan, has been appointed commander of the Chi An, one of the Foochow fleet; his brother, Mr. Lam Kwokayu, succeeds him in the command of the An-lan. Mr. Neo Chu-hong, who was formerly commander of one of the Foochow gunboats, has been promoted to the post of assistant commander of the corvette Yang Woo. These officers received a thorough education on foreign principles before entering the Chinese navy.

At Canton the natives continued to show a quiet demeanour, and business was proceeding much as usual, though trade cannot be called brisk.

The Daily Press states:—The steamer Namvian has been requisitioned by the French authorities at Haiphong to carry provisions from Thuanan to the former port for the use of the troops. About five days ago, 1,000 troops, drafted from the French army in Tonquin, were despatched from Haiphong in the transport Tarn for the North, where they will be employed in any subsequent movements of the French against China.

A telegram was received in Haiphong on the 10th instant from Hue announcing that the King of Annam had been poisoned, and that he died so suddenly that he was unable to nominate his successor. This is the second ruler of this unfortunate country who has, within a few months, been poisoned by his subjects. The position just rendered vacant cannot be called an enviable one.

On the 3rd inst. His Excellency the Viceroy, accompanied by His Excellency Peng Yu-lin, Commissioner for Coast Defence, went to Bocca Tigris and inspected the forts there. Subsequently they inspected the forts round Canton and displayed great interest in all the defensive works.

ANONYMOUS PETITIONS.—During the sitting of the Insolvent Court on Monday presided over by Mr. Justice Kernan, His Lordship observed that he had received a letter by post regarding some insolvent's case, but to what case it referred to he did not know. The letter contained the following words: "May God bless Her Majesty Queen Victoria and may Mr. Justice Kernan live for ever (Laughter). He is prayed for in every mosque." His Lordship added:—I notice that whenever there are Mahomedan cases before me I get such letters. The writers "take nothing by their motion." (Laughter.)—Times.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—In all outward complaints a desperate effort should be made to at once remove these alarming infirmities, and of establishing a cure. The remarkable remedies discovered by Professor Holloway will satisfactorily accomplish this desirable result, without any of those dangers or drawbacks which attend the old method of treating ulcerative inflammations, scrofulous affections, and scorbutic anomalies. The most timid invalids may use both the Ointment and Pills with the utmost safety with certian success, provided a moderate attention be bestowed on their accompanying "Directions." Both the preparations soothe, heal, and purify. The one assists the other materially in effecting cures and renewing strength by helping exhausted nature just when she needs such succour.

CAUTION.
UNREMITTING thought and labour are bestowed upon a speciality. It is, after great care and exceeding difficulty, crowned with success; when lo! immediately there arise swarms of imitations resembling the original closely enough to deceive the Public, and yet not so exactly as to infringe upon legal rights. These imitators, not having, perhaps, the means, or the experience, or the intelligence to push an honest article independently to the notice of the Public, are content to wait and look out for successful experiments by others, and then to adopt the semblance of such, and style these spurious productions the "original" or the "genuine" article. A better illustration of this cannot be cited than the famous case of Johann Maria Farina's Eau-de-Cologne. As soon as it became known that this justly celebrated Perfume commanded the market, the country was scoured for all the Farinas that could be found, they were brought to Cologne, and paid for the use of their name to push spurious articles into the market, styled the genuine Eau-de-Cologne of Farina!!
In 1864, for the first time, SCHIEDMAYER and SOEHNE'S Pianos were introduced into India. After careful observation and constant practical experiment we discovered the qualities necessary for making this marvel of cheapness and excellence suitable for the Indian Climate As soon as the necessary alterations and additions were made to these instruments, we caused an ivory medallion to be inserted over the name of the makers, and on this is stated that these Pianos are "Built expressly for the Indian Climate by order of C. Marcks and Co., Bombay and Poona." Without this we can guarantee none to be genuine.
The fame of these Pianos had scarcely gone abroad, when in came imitations promising everything, and leaving the unfortunate purchasers to find out the good qualities after purchase.
All who have tried our Pianos declare them perfection. We can guarantee Perfection only if the Instruments pass through our hands.
The most superb Pianos in outward appearance, interior construction, tone, touch, and repeating action can be seen at our Depot of
SCHIEDMAYER and SOEHNE'S Pianos,
Opposite the University Clock Tower.
☞ See that you ask for, and more especially that you get, SCHIEDMAYER and SOEHNE'S Pianos. We can guarantee no other genuine.
